Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day, 2019

community. activism. education. charity.

Come say Hello & drop off your donations at the welcome booth!

WELCOME

Welcome to Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day 2019!

Here we are again, in Clark Park B. We are happy to announce that this park will be the new permanent home for Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day. We've come full circle, back to our original home from our first event in 2013.

Since the beginning, we've strived to maintain a certain level of comfort and structure with each passing year by offering workshops, vending spaces, entertainment, and public rituals for the Pagan community. However, we also jump at opportunities for growth, change and evolution.

This year, we welcome our new President & Local Coordinator, Jay Gregory, and an almost entirely new Board of Directors. Former president Rob Schreiwer remains on the Board offering guidance as our Elder & Founder. The balance of fresh ideas combined with the wisdom of our seasoned PPPD Board members, has led us to this fantastic event: 59 vendors, 13 workshops, 5 incredible entertainment acts, 3 public rituals, 2 raffles, all-day children's activities and a beautiful labyrinth to offer a space for solitude and reflection during this busy day.

We're both honored and excited to welcome Laura Tempest Zakroff as our Keynote Speaker. Nathaniel Johnstone also joins us today, traveling around the park and providing us with beautiful music.

As always, thank you to all of our vendors, workshop presenters, entertainers, Board members and volunteers. Most of all, thank YOU for attending this event and showing up to celebrate your pride in being a member of the Pagan community.

Thank you and we hope you enjoy the event!

Jay Gregory, President & Local Coordinator

Robert L. Schreiwer, Elder & Founder

Our Mission

The Mission of the Pagan Pride Project is to foster pride in Pagan identity through education, activism, charity and community. In keeping with that mission, Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day is intended to bring together Pagans of all traditions to advance understanding, communication and fellowship among the various communities.

Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day is an open, public, family-friendly harvest event. We welcome anyone to participate who supports our mission and/or wishes to learn more about the Pagan community and our beliefs. An important facet of the mission is to build community among Pagans, and adherents of non-traditional faith systems and to educate the greater community about those beliefs. The event is designed as a celebration of life and of a community that contains diverse elements. That being said, we also find hate and intolerance in any form abhorrent and counterproductive to our mission.

We on the Board of Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day are committed to our stated mission as part of the greater Pagan Pride Project. The integrity of the Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day and its mission and the safety of the participants are our primary obligations as organizers of the event.

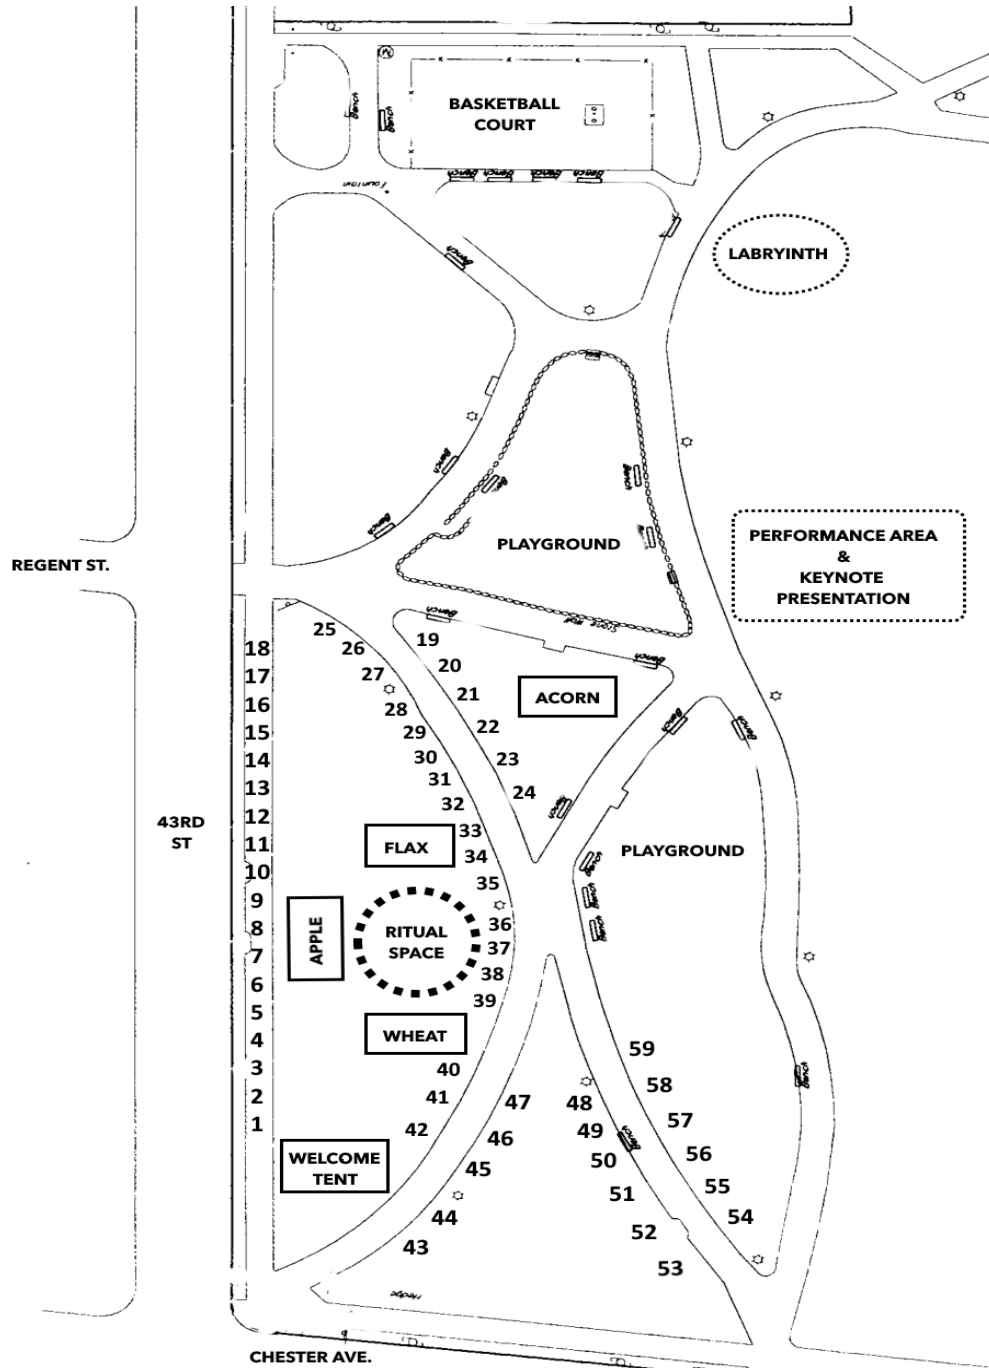

Any decisions made regarding changes to the schedule of events are based solely on the effort to fulfill our mission and to provide an enjoyable and meaningful event for our community. The views, opinions, and outside affiliations of the participants and attendees of Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day do not necessarily reflect the views of the organization, its Board, or event volunteers.

In Love and Light, Bright Blessings,

The Board of Philadelphia Pagan Pride Day

Workshops

The Dragon's Way

Still postures, moving meditations & breathing to synchronize mind, body & spirit with ancient classical Chi Kung & Kundalini Yogic exercises from Taoist legends of the animal spirits (Dragon, Crane, etc.), mystics (Sage, Goddess, etc.) & the Five Elements (Water, Metal, Fire, Wood & Earth).

Gabrielle de Burke (plum dragoness)

Meeting the Morrigan

The Morrigan is the Irish goddess of war, sorcery, and sovereignty. She is the wife of the Dagda, a prophet, a shapeshifter, a crow, and more. Join Red Oak Grove as we channel her into one of our members, and ask for advice and wisdom from the Phantom Queen.

Cait Wallace and Vela Chandra

Tarot Speak Body

Read the Tarot from the universal language of the body, giving attention to posture, gesture, gaze, and garb. Focused on traditional Tarot images (de Marseille, Italian, and Rider-Waite). Having a deck not required. No guidebook needed; only curiosity and willingness to see something new in the old.

Ambrose Gage

Walk with Intention

The labyrinth is a spiritual tool; a tool in which we can walk it for clarity, inspiration and reflection. Athena will give a brief introduction to the labyrinth followed by a guided, facilitated walk.

Athena Dugan

Keynote Weave The Liminal: Crafting Authentic Witchcraft

What does it mean to be an authentic Witch? Who or what sets the bar for authenticity? How can it define or impede your path? How do you find what is the best practice for you? Discover the Modern Traditional Witch's RITES: Roots, Inspiration, Time, Environment, and Star. These make up a dynamic system that centers around key elements essential for crafting an effective practice that works for you.

Laura Tempest Zakroff

Druid Witchcraft

Druidry and Witchcraft are two different paths that share many things in common. In this presentation, we will explore the roles of the Druid Witch: to honor nature and Celtic lore, pursue the study of magical wisdom, and to be a vessel of healing and peace.

Rick Silfies Potter

Active Protection Magic

Join author of 'Blackthorn's Botanical Magic,' Amy Blackthorn, on a quest to make the world a better place. We will discuss the crossroads of the modern era and we'll delve into the ethics of hexing. We'll discuss essential oils for justice magic and ways of incorporating them in our lives.

Amy Blackthorn

Urban Animism and Spirits of Place

Join me in examining animism and polytheism in urban environments, both ancient and modern. Then, we will discuss the unique spirits of the city and how we can interact with them to build and maintain a unique local practice.

Tora Kitchen

Reflections on the Afterlife

This talk is based on my work as a medium, near-death experience researcher, and death doula who sits bedside with the actively dying and is able to 'see' both sides. I will discuss my experiences of what takes place in the invisible world at end of life, the role of family in Spirit and more.

Debra Diamond, Ph.D.

Solitary Pagans and Heathens of Color

Many solitary practitioners are so by necessity rather than choice, and in their experience because they are people of color. This workshop is a forum for voices of pagans and heathens of color, a chance to hear your stories. This is an important discussion for everyone to hear.

Franklin Evans

The 17 Sisters: Laima, Flax, Plant Allies, and Personal Mythology

Presentation on engaging ancestral and personal plant relationships and storytelling. The workshop starts with a brief story of Saturn Return and the Baltic goddess Laima, meditations and exercises for opening intuition to work with a plant ally, and a short walk to engage and communicate with nature.

Stephanie B

Magic of Scientific Names

The botanical names of plants are the journey of magic that takes place within. When connecting each plant to its botanical family you can do more than know its roots; you can tell its magical history and uses. Understand working botanical magic with this new approach to working with plants.

Amy Blackthorn

Pillars of Belief: The Hermetic Principles in Modern Witchcraft

Discover how the Hermetic philosophies found in The Kybalion can be related to the modern Witchcraft. Explore these “universal laws” and why they are the pillars of many belief systems found around the globe.

E. Massey

Dark/New Moon Circle

We create space to rest and restore, listen within, connect to the earth and elements, and see what is coming up for us that we would like to release, transform, draw in, align with, remember, and be, for our well-being on our paths. Guided meditation journey and new moon ritual in sacred circle.
